Chapter 1 by Story Wars

One Halloween, there was a boy named Charlie. He was just an average, 8 year old boy. That night when he was going to houses and knocking on doors. He found one, old spooky house. It looked like it was at least from the 1600's. So Charlie went up and knocked on the door. With a loud creak

the door opened... And no one was there. So he went in himself. He found old antiques and furniture. Old portraits of people he didn't even know. And almost everything had blood and weapons were everywhere. Every step he took creaked loudly. Then he heard a weird noise. He was freaked out, he tried to scream but no noise came out. He walked some more through the house. Then he heard even more weird noises. He then looked around in one of the bedroom and found an open window, so he jumped out. He landed swiftly, but he landed in the back yard. He saw a cemetery beyond the property. He walked around, he saw graves, dead flowers, blood and bones everywhere. He emerged a shed, he went in. The shed was very dark and bloody too. Then he turned on his flashlight, and POP! The sound of a whirling chainsaw came on and then another and another. He looked around more and then he saw him... The man with the chainsaw. He'd been heard to kill a whole mall of people about 30 years. But Charlie didn't know that. The man was old, scrawny and extremely scary...... With a SWIPE! The man killed Charlie.
